

About Cindi

Cindi Huss began quilting in the early '90s. She is inspired by the bold colors and graphic designs of Amish and Mennonite quilts and the wonderful texture that is possible with the quilting stitch.

Cindi loves creating patchwork designs and quilting schemes. She also is addicted to exploring the cutting edge of quilting, using hand-dyeing, felting, and what she calls “extreme quilting” in her contemporary art.

Which does she prefer—traditional or contemporary? She’s not telling!

Crocheted Fabric Pots

Need a place to store jewelry on your nightstand? Hide lotion in the living room? Gather spare change on the dresser? Keep the cat's toys? These little pots are perfect. Need a hostess gift? Whip out one of these pots and you'll get the good sheets! The possibilities are as endless as the color combinations.

Make colorful little pots using basic crochet skills and scrap fabric. Great for catching snippets of thread by your sewing machine or ironing board. (I'm lost without mine!)

A materials list will be provided. Please note: Basic single crochet ability and preparation before first class is required.

Tuition: $25

Mat'ls Fee: $5

Dates: April 21, 28

Time: 7–9 p.m. (1st class);
7–8 p.m. (2nd class)

Felted Geodes and Sushi Rolls

Making geodes and sushi rolls is a great introduction to felting—and an easy way to make beautiful gifts in great taste. Geodes and sushi rolls can be “cracked” into wedges or slices to make hanging ornaments of various sizes or simply halved and used to add a little color around the house.

Students will learn the basic process of wet felting and will leave with 2–16 ornaments.
